Galina and Miyuki have tickets to see a play on Friday night. A few days before the play, Galina telephones Miyuki to finalize their plans for getting to the theater. Listen to the teacher read the conversation and read along.

- Miyuki: Hello?
- Galina: Hi, Miyuki. This is Galina from English class.
- Miyuki: Hi, Galina. How are you?
- Galina: I'm fine, and I am really looking forward to the play Friday night.
- Miyuki: Me too! Will your brother be able to drive us there?
- Galina: No. That's why I'm calling. He said that we should find some other way to get there.
- Miyuki: Did he have any suggestions?
- Galina: Yes. He said that we had better take a Metro bus to get to the theater, but that we should not take the bus home.
- Miyuki: What should we do to get back?
- Galina: My brother said that we had better take a cab because it'll be very late.
- Miyuki: But cabs are expensive! I think that we ought to see if my uncle can pick us up after the show.
- Galina: I agree!
