

Parties and Social Events

Welcome to Talk Time!

How are you? How was your week?

Discuss the idiom of the week: “drop by”

Let's get started

Play a game.

- As a group, talk about the vocabulary in the squares below.
- Talk to your classmates. Find a person to match each description.
- Write the person's name by the description.
- Try not to write the same name twice!

Find Someone Who...

Likes potlucks.	Has been to a costume party.	Has been to a bachelor or bachelorette party.	Likes to go on picnics.
Does not like to go to parties.	Has been to a graduation party.	Has been to a surprise birthday party.	Likes to host parties at his/her home.

Talk about your answers with the group. (Who likes potlucks? Who has been to a costume party? What costume did you wear? etc.)

Activity

Read the party invitation. Then, answer the questions.

- What kind of party is this?
- When is the party?
- Where is the party?
- Who is hosting the party?
- When do you need to RSVP?
- What kind of food will be at the party?
- What kind of clothes should the guests wear?
- What should the guests bring to the party?

Discussion

Talk with a partner. Then, share your answers with the group.

- 1) Describe the best party that you have been to. Why was it the best?
- 2) Would you rather go to someone else's house for a party or have a party at your house? Why?
- 3) In your culture, what is the polite way to refuse an invitation?
- 4) Do you consider yourself a social person? What do you like to talk about?
- 5) Do you have plans to host or attend any social events this summer? What will you do?

What questions do you have about attending parties and social events in America? What else would you like to talk about?
